

1. What is “Fundamental Japanese Courses (JLPTUFS)”?

- “Fundamental Japanese Courses (Japanese Language Program of TUFS)” is a Japanese program for international students studying at TUFS to acquire a high level of Japanese language proficiency which is necessary for studying and researching at the university.
- This program covers 7 levels of Japanese language proficiency: Elementary 1, Elementary 2, Intermediate 1, Intermediate 2, Pre-Advanced, Advanced 1, and Advanced 2.
- Each level has "Integrated" classes and "Focused" classes. In the "Integrated" classes, students can comprehensively learn the four skills (reading, listening, writing, and speaking). As for “Focused” classes, there are variety of classes such as grammar and Kanji in addition to reading comprehension, listening comprehension, writing communication and oral communication. ➡ "3. Types of Classes Offered (p.2)"
- Japanese language classes are offered in the Spring Quarter (April to July) and the Fall Quarter (October to January). Each quarter has 13 weeks.

★ All the classes in the Fundamental Japanese Courses (JLPTUFS) for Fall 2021 will be offered entirely ONLINE.

2. Who Can Take This Program?

- The table below shows which class(es) can be taken according to the student categories.
- The “◎” and “○” in the table indicate the classes that can be taken. If there are a large number of students who wish to take the course, the students with the "◎" will be given priority. As a general rule, students cannot take classes with "–". Also, auditing is not permitted in this program.

〈Category of International Students and Classes Available〉

4. Course Registration Procedures for New Students

- Students planning to take the Fundamental Japanese Courses (JLPTUFS) for the first time need to register for the courses according to the procedures shown below.
- Course registration can be done online through the GAKUMU Information System. Visiting students and other students (e.g. PCS students) will be notified individually.
(<https://gakumu-web1.tufs.ac.jp/Portal/Login.aspx>)
- Online classes (including Hiragana Class) will be conducted on Zoom.

★ The details on the Placement Test and the Hiragana Class will be informed individually by email.

〈Registration Procedures for New Students〉

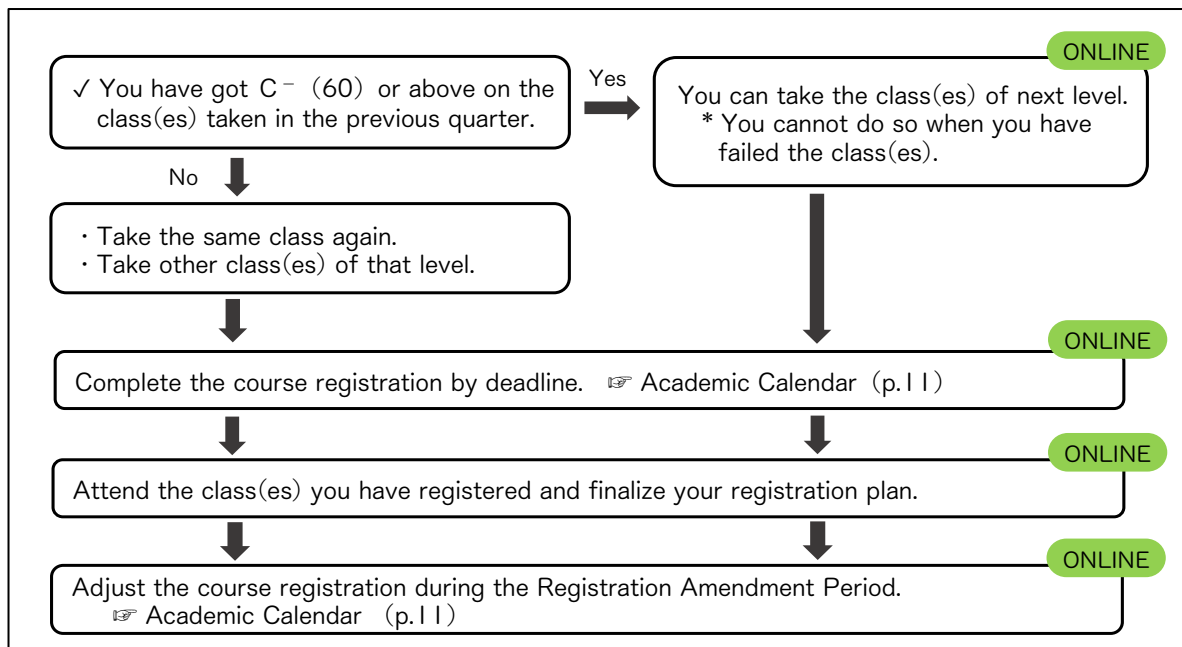

Students placed at “Upper-Advanced” Level by the Placement Test are NOT allowed to take or audit any classes in the Fundamental Japanese Courses. These students are recommended to take the subjects taught in Japanese in the Undergraduate Program to brush up their Japanese.

5. Course Registration Procedures for Continuing Students

- Students who have taken Fundamental Japanese Courses (JLPTUFS) in Spring 2021 or before can register for the courses according to the procedures shown below.
- Course registration can be done online through the GAKUMU Information System. Visiting students and other students (e.g. PCS students) will be notified individually.
 〈<https://gakumu-web1.tufs.ac.jp/Portal/Login.aspx>〉
- Online classes will be conducted on Zoom.
- In case of continuing students, if the grades in the previous quarter were “C⁻ (60 points)” or above, they can take the classes of the next level in this quarter.
 - ☞ “11. Grades and Evaluation (p.8)”
 - Example 1: B (75 points) in "Integrated 301" in Spring 2021
 → "Integrated 401" can be registered in Fall 2021.
 - Example 2: A⁻ (80 points) in "Kanji 902" in Spring 2021
 → "Kanji 903" can be registered in Fall 2021.
 - Example 3: F (below 60 points) in "Listening Comprehension 613" in Spring 2021
 → "Listening Comprehension 713" CANNOT be registered in Fall 2021

〈Registration Procedures for Continuing Students〉

Students who passed the subject(s) of Level 700 by Spring 2021 are NOT allowed to take or audit any classes in the Fundamental Japanese Courses. These students are recommended to take the subjects taught in Japanese in the Undergraduate Program to brush up their Japanese.

6. Notes on Course Registration

Recommended Number of Periods to Be Taken

- It is recommended that students of Level 100-600 take at least 3 periods per quarter in order to improve their Japanese proficiency.
- ISEPTUFS Students and Research Students have the upper limit on the number of periods to register (p.6).

Registration for Integrated Class

- When taking an "Integrated" class, students must attend all 5 periods per week (3 for "Integrated Japanese 601" and 2 for "Integrated Japanese 701"). If there are 2 classes (A and B) offered, students should register for either A class or B class and attend only the registered one.

Registration for Kanji Class

- When taking a Kanji class, students must register for the class corresponding to their level as shown in the table below.
 - Example 1: Elementary 2 (200) Level students
 - Only "Kanji 901" can be registered.
 - Example 2: Intermediate 2 (400) Level students
 - Either "Kanji 902" or "Kanji 903" can be registered.
- Students should choose a class which suits their ability of reading and writing Kanji. Students who cannot decide which class to take should consult with the instructor of the Kanji class.

〈Japanese Class Levels and Their Corresponding Kanji Classes〉

Level	Kanji Class (JLPT Level)
Elementary 1 (100)	Unable to take Kanji Class*
Elementary 2 (200)	Kanji 901 (N4)
Intermediate 1 (300)	Kanji 901 (N4) OR Kanji 902 (N3)
Intermediate 2 (400)	Kanji 902 (N3) OR Kanji 903 (N2)
Pre-Advanced (500)	Kanji 902 (N3) OR Kanji 903 (N2)
Advanced 1 (600)	Kanji 903 (N2) OR Kanji 904 (N1)
Advanced 2 (700)	Kanji 903 (N2) OR Kanji 904 (N1)

* Students of Level 100 will study Kanji in the Intensive or Integrated Class

Changing the Class Level

- As a general rule, students should take the class(es) of the level where they are placed.
- In order to take a class that is not of the level where they are placed, students must consult with the instructor of the class they wish to take and obtain permission. Students CANNOT change the level of class(es) without permission.
- As a general rule, students can change their class level by only one level higher or one level lower than the level where they are placed.

Upper Limit for Registration for Japanese Language Classes

*ISEPTUFS Students and Research Students Only

- As shown in the table below, ISEPTUFS Students and Research Students have the upper limit for registration for Japanese language classes.
- Students of Level 100-600 can register up to 6 periods, and those of Level 700 can register up to 3 periods. It is not possible to take more than the upper limit.
- As shown in the table below, there are two types of class registration: “Integrated Type” or “Focused Type.”
- There is no upper limit on the number of classes that can be taken for Undergraduate Students, Preparatory Research Students and Japanese Studies Students.
- As for visiting students and other students (PCS students, etc.), which class(es) to take will be decided through consultation with the academic advisor (p.10).

〈Upper Limit for Registration for Japanese Language Classes〉

Type of Registration Level	Integrated Type: Register Integrated Class	Focused type: Register Focused Classes only
Level 100-500 (up to 6 periods)	1) Integrated Class (5 periods) only or 2) Integrated Class (5 periods) + Focused Class (1 period)	Focused Classes only (1-6 periods)
Level 600 (up to 6 periods)	1) Integrated Class (3 periods) only or 2) Integrated Class (3 periods) + Focused Class(es) (1-3 periods)	Focused Classes only (1-6 periods)
Level 700 (up to 3 periods)	1) Integrated Classes (2 periods) only or 2) Integrated Classes (2 periods) + Focused Class (1 period)	Focused Classes only (1-3 periods)

When registering for classes through the Gakumu Information System, students must use the class codes on the "Class Code List" which can be downloaded from the URL below.

8. Purchasing Textbooks

- Students should purchase the textbook as soon as they have decided on the classes to take. Textbooks can be purchased at the University CO-OP bookstores. The details such as business hours can be found on the website of the University CO-OP.

<https://www.univcoop.jp/tufs/index.html>

- Students who live outside Japan and find it difficult to obtain textbooks should consult with the class instructor.

9. Class Attendance

- In order to acquire a high level of Japanese language proficiency, active participation in classes is very important even online classes. Students are required to attend classes constantly unless they have special reasons.
- As a general rule, in the Fundamental Japanese Courses (JLPTUFS), students with poor attendance (below 80%) will be graded as F (Fail), unless they have special reason.
- Immigration Services Agency of Japan requires TUFs to report the students' class attendance as needed. If the attendance is not favorable, students may lose their status as an international student.

10. Examinations

Midterms, Finals and Make-up Exams

- Students must take exams such as midterm exams and final exams under given conditions, following the instructions of the class instructor.
- Students who cannot or could not take an exam due to unavoidable reasons such as illness, accident, or misfortune of relative should consult with the class instructor for a make-up exam.

Cheating

- Students who are found to have cheated in exams may have all of their course registration for the quarter invalidated. There is a severe punishment for cheating. Students MUST NOT commit dishonest acts or acts that are suspected of being dishonest.

11. Grades and Evaluation

- In the Fundamental Japanese Courses (JLPTUFS), grades will be given according to the 11-scaled grading system from S to F as shown in the table below.
- The details on evaluation of each class can be found in the “Syllabus” on the Gakumu Information System.
- Undergraduate students, ISEPTUFS Students and Japanese Studies Students can check their grades on the Gakumu Information System. Research students should contact the Student Exchange Division, and Preparatory Research Students should contact the JLC Office, for inquiries on their grades.
